health and avoid sickness. Instead of feeling tired and worn out, instead of aches and pains, wouldn't rou rather feel fresh and st. ong?

You can continue feeling miserable and good for nothing, and no one but yourself can find fault, but if you are tired of that kind of life, you can change it if you choose.

How? By getting one bottle of Brown' Iron Bit-TERS, and taking it regularly according to directions.

> Mansfield, Ohio, Nov. 26, 1881.
> Gentlemen: —I have referred with pain in my side and has, and great soccases as my breast, with shorting poins all through my body, attended with great weakness, dopression of spirits, and loss of appetite. I have taken several different medicines, and was treated by prominent physicians for my liver, killings, and spleen, but I got no relief. I thought I would try Brown's Iron Bitters; I have now taken one bottle and a half and am about well—pain in side and back all gone—corcues all out of my breast, and I have a good appetit. —I am gaining in strength and field. I teen justly be called the king of medicines. Mansfield, Ohio, Nov. 25, 1531. called the king of medicines.

The proceeding was novel, because there is no general law in case of donation contests. As the precedent has been established probably other cases will follow. The time has arrived when the land laws must he strictly complied with.

The intensity of the struggle for a livelihood in England is illustrated by the statement of a magzine writer, that there are 300,000 families in London who are in the habit of pawning small articles, and that more than 6,000,000 unclaimed pledges are sold every year in that city, while over 270, 000,000 articles are taken in pledge in the course of a year throughout the country.
